Our Certifications

Long Thuy has an establish team to handle the quality control process and ensure each and every one of our products meets our customer and market requirements.

We currently hold the following certification:

ISO 9001:2015

The certification is subject to various audits from our 3rd party. We are capable self-inspections and random inspections as needed.

Our quality Assurance team consists of 20 people, where of these people are part of a self-inspection team. They work closely with the factory to build a standard of operation to assist in the production process. This standard of operation builds quality check points into our production process, to continuously quality check our products from raw material to manufacturing to the final product.

Control Process:
